A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

As 2008 is now upon us, so are some noteworthy differences to your 2008 LAGBAC membership.

LAGBAC members enjoy the following benefits:

- *Admission to monthly Meet the Bar nights (nonmembers and guests will be charged $5);
- *Admission to Lawyers for Diversity Mid-Summer Barbecue (nonmembers and guests will be charged to attend);
- *Reduced admission to the Judge's Pride Reception and complimentary admission to other receptions and events;
- *Continuing Legal Education seminars (as offered);
- *Membership on one or more of LAGBAC's committees (including Judicial Evaluation Committee); and
- *Much, much more...

As the only bar organization solely dedicated to the LGBT legal community, it is crucial that our membership reflect our strength and our unity. For the past few years, the Board has been working tirelessly to increase the membership and profile of LAGBAC and the benefits of LAGBAC membership. Chances are that you have shared a cocktail with your colleagues during a Meet the Bar at Sidetrack or you or your firm participated in or sponsored Lawyers for Diversity. Or, perhaps you investigated or interviewed a judicial candidate or you have joined the Mentorship Program as a mentor or mentee. No doubt over the last year you have witnessed the great programs, events and initiatives that LAGBAC has brought to the LGBT legal community and its membership...and 2008 stands to be no different. From CLEs and workshops, to the regularly-scheduled Meet the Bar events and Lawyers for Diversity, 2008 promises to be a great year for LAGBAC.

During the New Year, LAGBAC promises to build on these existing programs and to introduce new opportunities for its membership. But, in order for LAGBAC to fulfill this promise to you, LAGBAC needs you to do three things! First, LAGBAC needs you to renew your membership (or become a member). LAGBAC is only as strong as its membership and we can be stronger! The greater LAGBAC's membership, the more programs, events and initiatives LAGBAC is able to bring to its membership. Second, LAGBAC needs you to spread the word to your friends and colleagues. Whether you work in a law firm or for the government, please pass this to any and all attorneys whom you think would be interested in joining. Third, ask one person to join LAGBAC. If each current member asks one person to become a member, LAGBAC will easily be one of the biggest minority bars in Chicago. Please consider helping LAGBAC fulfill its promise...

Best, Jeremy

LAGBAC STUDENT MENTORING PROGRAM UNDERWAY

Eighteen law students and fifteen attorneys are currently participating in LAGBAC's mentorship program. LAGBAC attorneys have offered incredible support for the program, which is still in its first year. The mentorship program pairs GLBT law students with attorneys practicing in their areas of interest. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis, and additional assignments will be made at the beginning of next year. If you are interested in becoming a mentor or mentee, go to www.lagbac.org for an application or contact jmjohnson@lagbac.org.

SPEEDNETWORKING EVENT FEBRUARY 26, 2008

In conjunction with LAGBAC's mentorship program, LAGBAC's Law School Committee and Loyola University Chicago School of Law's Career Services will be sponsoring a networking event to be held at Loyola on Tuesday, February 26, 2008, from 5 to 8 p.m. A short reception will follow the activities. Law students will have the opportunity to briefly meet with an attorney, take his/her business card, and then switch partners. The goal is for law students to learn more about the careers of as many GLBT attorneys as time allows and to hopefully gain some important contacts in the process. LAGBAC is asking for the help of its attorney members in making this event a success. If you can make yourself available for the evening, please RSVP to Jason Johnson at jmjohnson@lagbac.org and include your contact and practice information. Details are as follows: Loyola University Chicago School of Law, Lewis Towers, Beane Hall, 13th Floor Ballroom. Lewis Towers is located at 820 North Michigan Avenue.

LAGBAC JUDICIAL EVALUATION COMMITTEE NEWS

LAGBAC's Judicial Evaluation Committee (JEC) is in full swing for the 2008 election year. LAGBAC, along with the nine other member bars of the Alliance of Bar Associations for Judicial Screening, have finished interviewing judicial candidates who plan to seek election in the February 2008 primary. Results of our evaluations are included in this newsletter. Next, the Alliance and the Chicago Bar Association will begin to jointly interview the 80 or so sitting judges who will be seeking retention in the November 2008 general election.

Service on LAGBAC's JEC presents an excellent opportunity both to have a voice in the selection of judges and to make contact with the diverse attorneys who represent LAGBAC and the other members bar of the Alliance, which include the Asian American Bar, the Black Women Lawyers, the Chicago Council of Lawyers, Cook County Bar, Decalogue Society of Lawyers, Hellenic Bar, Illinois State Bar, Puerto Rican Bar, and the Women's Bar Association. The JEC chair, Mark Dupont, would be glad to discuss with you how the committee operates. Should you decide to join the committee, you will be paired with an experienced JEC member to accompany you to your first set of interviews and orient you to the evaluation process. Although JEC members are encouraged to participate in all aspects of the evaluation process, including interviews, investigations, and committee discussions of individual candidates, each member determines his or her own level of involvement. Results

Please contact Mark Dupont at 312-435-3001 if you would like further information about the JEC.

APPLICATION DEADLINE FOR 2008 LAGBAC FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM EXTENDED

After a successful inaugural year, The LAGBAC Foundation, the charitable arm of the Lesbian & Gay Bar Association of Chicago, is seeking applications for its Scholarship Program for 2008.

If you are a law student who is committed to social justice in the LGBT community and have secured or will secure an internship with an organization or agency that does this type of work, this scholarship is for you. Many times internships with organizations that work on issues important to our community are unpaid. This, as you know, discourages many from taking these jobs. The LAGBAC Foundation is doing its part by paying a stipend to those who do this good and necessary work.

Last year, the Foundation awarded two $4000 scholarships to students who worked at the Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund. Interested?

This year, The LAGBAC Foundation will award scholarships to support full-time employment at a qualified LGBT/civil rights organization during the summer of 2008. First, Second and Third year law students are encouraged to apply; the scholarships range in amount, from $3,000 to $4,000. Applications are printed herein at pages 8-9 and also can be found at www.lagbac.org and are now due by February 29, 2008. Remember, you must apply for your own internship as well as the scholarship by February 29, 2008.

HAVE YOU RENEWED YOUR LAGBAC MEMBER- SHIP FOR 2008?

Renew your membership now by going to www.lagbac.org or mailing your membership dues to:

LAGBAC
P.O. Box 64933
Chicago, Illinois 60664-0933

LAGBAC members enjoy the following benefits:

- *Meet the Bar nights (nonmembers and guests will be charged $5);
- *Lawyers for Diversity Mid-Summer Barbecue (nonmembers, non-sponsoring firms & guests will be charged to attend);
- * Judge's Pride Reception and other receptions and events;
- *Continuing Legal Education seminars (as offered);
- *Membership on LAGBAC's committees; and
- *Much, much more...

Future communication from LAGBAC will be electronic. You MUST provide us with an email address to receive future information and newsletters. If you are unable to accept electronic communications, your membership fee will be slightly higher. Membership runs January 1-December 31.

LAGBAC MEMBER DIRECTORY RELAUNCH

LAGBAC is in the process of developing the LAGBAC Member Directory. The LAGBAC Member Directory provides membership information on a volunteer basis among LAGBAC members and the public, and is available to the public through LAGBAC's website, located at www.lagbac.org. The Directory is a benefit to LAGBAC's members, providing them with a unique and significant opportunity to develop clients through the website from people who are seeking counsel in particular areas of expertise. LAGBAC's website has a significant and increasing amount of traffic, and much of it is from individuals looking for a LGBT lawyer in the Chicago area, and often a referral to a lawyer in a particular field. Any LAGBAC member is entitled to participate. To participate, complete and return the attached form, which is also available on the website. Upon receipt of the form, the lawyer's name, contact information and area of practice or expertise will be posted to a separate page on LAGBAC's website devoted to the Directory, and readily accessible to searches on the web, as well as from within the website. Members interested in participating should complete the form, available under "Legal Resources" on our website www.lagbac.org.

MEET THE BAR NIGHTS CONTINUE

The 2008 Meet the Bar Schedule is as follows: Friday, February 29 (sponsored by Sonnenschein, Nath & Rosenthal); Friday, March 28 (sponsored by Wildman, Harrold, Allen & Dixon); Friday, April 25 (sponsorship available); and Friday, May 30 (sponsorship available). We want to thank our sponsors to date and encourage you and your law firm to consider sponsoring an upcoming Meet the Bar. Sponsorship of Meet the Bar is a great way to show your commitment to LGBT diversity and an even better way to reach out to law students and the LGBT community. Sponsorship of Meet the Bar supports the efforts of the LAGBAC Foundation, which awards scholarships for law students interning at LGBT/Civil Rights organizations. Please contact Jeremy at jgottschalk@lagbac.org about sponsoring an upcoming Meet the Bar.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Liberty Mutual is looking for up to two Workers Compensation staff attorneys in its Downers Grove, Illinois location. Interested applicants should contact Lawrence Cozzi by e-mail at lawrence.cozzi@libertymutual.com or by phone at 630-515-9777.

ALLIANCE OF BAR ASSOCIATIONS FOR JUDICIAL SCREENING

Key to Ratings:

HR	=	Highly Recommended
R	=	Recommended
NR	=	Not Recommended
WQ	=	Well Qualified
HQ	=	Highly Qualified
Q	=	Qualified
NQ	=	Not Qualified
NE	=	Not Evaluated Through No Fault of the Candidate
NE*	=	Not Evaluated – Late Submission of Application

Judicial candidates are rated by the Alliance of Bar Associations for Judicial Screening based on detailed information supplied by the candidates, a background check by trained lawyers/investigators, and interviews of each candidate. Ratings reflect the Alliance's opinion of whether candidates have the necessary qualifications for judicial service and are not a reflection of the candidates' abilities as lawyers. These ratings are not to be considered as endorsements. Candidates who do not participate in the process are found "not qualified" or "not recommended."

The Alliance of Bar Associations for Judicial Screening is comprised of the Asian American Bar Association, Black Women Lawyers' Association of Greater Chicago, Chicago Council of Lawyers, Cook County Bar Association, Decalogue Society of Lawyers, Hellenic Bar Association, Illinois State Bar Association, Lesbian and Gay Bar Association of Chicago, Puerto Rican Bar Association of Illinois, and Women's Bar Association of Illinois working collaboratively to improve the process of screening judicial candidates in Cook County, Illinois.
